

2007-08 South Region Agenda

1. Opening prayer. Paul Shiffer

2. Old Business Last year we voted in favor of penalties against players that used vulgar language on a regular basis. Was there a problem this year?

Everyone agreed that it was not a problem this season and that overall we felt that this was a good year.

4. Voting for Coach of the year

Paul Shiffer had 3 of the 5 votes

5. New Business Coach's need to be a better example by not using words that might be acceptable to some, yet offensive to others. Sometimes we use words that are everyday language to us, yet they offend more conservative persons. We agreed to be more sensitive in this area.

Paul Shiffer resigned as the district chair.

Next years regional tournament will be held at Atlanta

6. Voting for District Chair

Paul Shiffer nominated Phil Franklin of PBC. Vote was unanimous.

7. Close in Prayer Phil Franklin

I would like to thank each of you for your hard work throughout this season, but more so for your friendship. I wonder if Duke's coach and Georgia Tech's coach can sit and carry on a conversation like we can.

I would like to ask each of you not to give scouting reports to anyone against Southeastern. They represent us and some regions do not think much of our region. So let them win or lose on their own.

Ed from Toccoa Falls and especially me, I want your team to know that we are really rooting for you to do well. We hope we can see you in that Championship game against Kentucky.

The field is set for the National tournament with:
Kentucky #1, Philadelphia #2, Hillsdale #3, Maranatha #4, North Central #5
Southeastern #6, Ozark #7, Grace Baptist #8, Southwestern (Ariz) #9,
Southwestern Christian #10

Please get in your All-American nominations and your Scholar Athlete nominations to Ed Plastow by Saturday March 8th. He will represent the Region as I will not attend the National Tournament.

Sit around this summer, do not recruit. Have a great remainder of this semester
